The Muskoka Community Performing Arts Company is looking for Dancers, Singers, Acrobats & Musicians 12 years and under for a Community Touring Company to perform for Local Audiences, Senior Residences and Nursing Homes February and March 2017. Rehearsals will take place on selected Saturday Afternoons throughout the months of November 2016, December 2016 and January 2017.

Saturday October 22nd, 2016 at the Muskoka Dance Academy
4:00pm - 6:00pm
Audition Fee: $7.00
Please reserve an Audition Spot and Time!

About the Audition:

Please wear a black bodysuit, black dance shorts, Jazz shoes or bare feet and have hair neatly secured up. Please arrive 15 minutes prior to your scheduled time. You will be allowed to warm up briefly before you are given a Performer's Number. Dancers will then line up in the order of their numbers and proceed into the Audition Studio. A dance will be taught and performers will be asked to showcase their talents with something they have prepared. A minimum of three judges will be in attendance to critique the performers. An email will follow with Production Details ☺

About the Company

Initiated in 2013, the Muskoka Community Performing Arts Company is a nonprofit, noncompetitive dance company designed to give young local performers multiple performing opportunities throughout Muskoka. Dancers are selected through an audition process each September and assigned various roles. The company works with local choreographers for 12 weeks to produce a theme based show. A Tour begins in February consisting of a number of performances throughout Muskoka visiting various Retirement Homes and entertaining for a variety of Community functions ☺
